Achenbach Foundation for Graphic Arts, Fine Arts Museum of San Francisco with the collection and the duplicate stamp (Lugt 3a and 5069).

Very fine, silvery impressions; published by François Langlois, representations of Spring, Summer, Autumn and Winter, each with parallel Latin and English verse beneath the image and with the date and address; each with narrow margins. – Light mount staining in the corners in places; the upper right corner attached (spring), thinned out at the bottom right corner (autumn). Verso with remnants of an earlier mount, otherwise in very good condition.
