Provenance

Heinrich Brockhaus Collection (1804–1874), Leipzig, in family ownership since then.

Excellent, harmonious early impression before the addresses in the lower margin. With a fine margin around the clearly visible platemark. After the painting attributed to Giorgione in the Royal Collection at Hampton Court, the engraving is from the series "Variarum imaginum a celeberrimis artificibus pictarum Caelaturae", also known as Cabinet Reynst. - Slightly time stained, the right and upper margin just outside the platemark rubbed with laid paper. A smoothed vertical crease on the verso, otherwise in very good condition.
