Provenienza

According to the current owner acquired from the collection of Paul Davidsohn (1839–before 1924), Berlin in 1920.

A fine Meder b impression, with the horizontal scratches parallel to the upper edge, yet before the appearance of the vertical scratch along the right edge. Thread margins. – A closed, 1 cm long tear in the upper right corner. Light foxing. Paper time-stained and slightly wavy along the upper edge due to mounting. Surface rubbing in the lower corners. Verso with former mount strip all around, otherwise in good condition.
