(New Hollstein) 12 II (of V).

A fine, well-inked early impression with all the fine details distinct and with strong contrasts. Trimmed to or slightly on the table. – With minimal irregular trimming on the left, occasional restored small margin tears, a longer margin tear lower left up to the acrobat doing the headstand, horizontal and vertical creases, carefully smoothed. On the reverse, the left margin with abrasions. A few faint brown spots on the reverse, otherwise in good condition.
